

PENKFORD SCHOOL

JOB DESCRIPTION

Post: - Qualified Teacher – Main Professional Range

Name of Postholder:

Prime Objectives

To carry out the duties of a class teacher as described in the current Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document, having due regard to the requirements of the National Curriculum, school policies and schemes of work. It is expected that you will be an effective member of the staff team and that your classroom and teaching practice reflects the school philosophy, ethos. It is expected that you will combine high quality classroom practice with the ability to create and sustain effective relationships with challenging children to bring about positive outcomes for them.

Line Management

Responsible to the Head Teacher and your Line Manager

Core Responsibilities

- To be an inclusive classroom practitioner that can maintain high quality teaching which will be evident in your classroom organisation and management, bringing about positive learning experiences and outcomes for pupils.
- To assess and monitor the progress of pupils.
- To effectively make use of data analysis to plan for pupil progression.
- To contribute and support the schools positive ethos.
- Promote equality of opportunity at every level and actively encourage community cohesion.
- To assist in the promotion of positive behaviour management strategies for pupils.
- To have specific responsibilities for the education and pastoral welfare of a class of pupils.
- To create a stimulating learning environment for all children.
- To promote parental involvement and participation.
- To supervise and make effective use of Learning Support Assistants allocated to the class.
- To comply with health and safety guidance and regulations.
- Follow all safeguarding procedures.
- To undertake any reasonable duties as may from time to time be specified.
- To take opportunities for relevant CPD as identified through the school's Appraisal cycle.
- To attend all staff training as identified.

All staff are expected to become involved in all aspects of school life to bring about a positive learning experience for all our pupils.