Teaching and Learning

Within the context of a Church School, the search for excellence pursued through teaching and learning takes place in the context of the individual needs and aspirations of the pupils as God's children.

- To carry out medium and short term planning for teaching the National Curriculum/EYFS Framework and evaluating progress towards this, as required by the school's policies.
- To teach, according to their educational needs, the pupils assigned to them including the setting and marking of work to be carried out in school and elsewhere. To identify clear teaching objectives and outcomes with appropriate challenge and high expectation.
- To manage the classroom effectively to develop a purposeful and stimulating learning environment, ensuring the best use of support staff.
- To manage pupil behaviour in a positive and effective manner and in line with the school's policy.
- To review programmes of work, teaching materials and methods in liaison with co-ordinators and other colleagues.
- To assess, record and report all the development, progress and attainment of pupils having regard to the curriculum of the school.
- To set targets for individual pupils as required.
- To contribute to meetings, discussions and management issues necessary for whole school systems.
- To promote equality as an integral part of the role and to treat everyone with fairness and dignity, in line with the school's policies.
- To supervise the playground on a rota basis.
- To record and monitor attendance for the class, liaising with the Office Manager over the First Day Response action.
- To further personal development with relevance to the post and personal needs.
- To attend relevant training and meetings.
- To liaise with outside agencies when appropriate.
- To continue professional development, maintaining a portfolio of training undertaken and impact.

Subject Leadership

- To help to lead the school's curriculum within a team and individually.
- To raise awareness of the team's subject developments throughout the school

- To be responsible for writing and updating school policies which relate to curriculum areas of responsibility.
- To liaise with all staff
- To maintain resources to promote the teaching of their team's subject areas.
- To monitor and support their team's subjects' teaching throughout the school

General Duties

- The education and welfare of a designated class of pupils in accordance with the requirements of Conditions of Employment of School Teachers, having due regard to the National Curriculum, the school's aims, policies and schemes of work. To share in the corporate responsibility for the well being and discipline of all pupils.
